

Jesse R Wilson Promoted by Union Carbide

Jesse R. Wilson, area foreman for the Torrance plant of Union Carbide Chemicals Co., recently accepted a position with the firm's international division, and will begin a tour of several UCC plants, aiding in training personnel in production of chemicals. He plans to depart about Dec. 1 for Fawley, England.

Wilson and his wife Mickey reside at 4117 W. 178th St. They came to Torrance in 1956 when he accepted the position of area foreman here.

INNOVATION—California Bank's new mobile unit will be used where building is being constructed or existing structure altered. The unit will handle most all transactions.

California Bank to Place Mobile Facility in Operation in January

Southern California's first mobile bank will be placed in operation by California Bank early in January. The initial location will be the construction site of the bank's new El Segundo Office on Sepulveda Blvd.

This modern bank - on - wheels will be equipped with an officers' platform, a drive-up window, a four-station teller line, and will offer every banking service except safe-deposit facilities. The bank will have concrete-wrapped steel money chest, a steel book safe, bookkeeping machines, photo-reproduction equipment, and most of the customary banking fixtures. There will be complete employee service facilities including a coffee bar and an electric drinking fountain. The

Colorado Water Low for Year

Flow of the Colorado River during the year ending Sept. 30 was the fourth lowest recorded, the Colorado River Board of California reported today.

The annual flow of 6,750,000 acre-feet was 55 per cent of average, the board said.

There is no restriction on water use to Southern California, and none is in prospect, said Raymond Mathew, chief engineer of the board.

Elks to Hold Memorial Rites Here on Sunday

For many years the first Sunday in December has been set aside by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States as memorial Sunday, a day on which all subordinate lodges pay tribute to their departed brothers with a ritual written for the occasion. Torrance Lodge 1948 will observe memorial Sunday in its hall, 1951 W. Carson St., at 2 p.m.

Principal speaker will be Walter B. Heller, a past exalted ruler of Redondo Beach lodge and a past district deputy grand exalted ruler of the California south central coast district. The public may attend. Arrangements have been made for the widows of the departed brothers to be present, as well as members and their families.

Chairmen of the program are Assistant Esquire Gale Hunn and Chaplain Herman Sneekin.

Will Attend Seminar

Dr. Allen L. Pyeatt, member of the Los Angeles County Optometric Society, will attend the fifth annual contact-lens seminar of the California Optometric Association Sunday, Dec. 6, at the Ambassador in Los Angeles.
